

Written by
Dave Lewman, Joe Liss, Mark Nutter & John Rubano

Music & Lyrics by Mark Nutter

Time: The Present
Place: A Small Village in France

Cast in Order of Appearance:

MARK NUTTER (Keyboard Player, et.al.) has written movies ("Almost Heroes"), television ("Saturday Night Live" "3rd Rock from the Sun"), and stage musicals ("Wild Men"). He performs solo at the piano and his CD, "Twisted Songs for Twisted Sophisticates" is available at www.marknutter.com.

JOE LISS (Offal the Lovable Mute, et. al.) is a Second City veteran who has performed in Totally Looped at IOWest, Twentieth Century at LA Theatre Works, and Margot's Bush. On TV he appeared on Less Than Perfect, Curb Your Enthusiasm, and Strangers With Candy. Joe's first film role was in Major League. His writing credits include Mel Brooks' Spaceballs - The Animated Series, Drawn Together, Spongebob Squarepants, and Third Rock From the Sun.

JOHN RUBANO (L'Homme du Bicyclette, et.al.) is a Second City alumnus who has appeared in numerous television and film roles including Seinfeld, According to Jim, and The Sharktank Redemption. His voice can be heard in many animated and commercial projects. He currently sings with Jim Belushi and the Sacred Hearts and The Blues Brothers Band.

DAN CASTELLANETA (Steve) won three Emmys as the voice of Homer Simpson and others on "The Simpsons." Guest appearances include "NYPD Blue," "Murphy Brown," "Friends," "Everybody Loves Raymond", "Veronica Mars", and "Entourage". His film work includes "Nothing in Common," "War of the Roses," "The Client," "Space Jam," and "The Pursuit of Happyness."

Lights and sound: Josh Minnick Props: Usha Chohan

Thanks to Aliza Murrieta and Bang Studio

Original Cast Album available in the lobby or at www.cdbaby.com/cd/bicyclemen

merci